

HB 1147-S - DIGEST

(AS OF HOUSE 2ND READING 3/03/05)

Provides for the protection of communities from sex offenders through the establishment of community protection zones.

Provides that law enforcement agencies and the department of corrections are immune from civil liability for damages from discretionary decisions made under this act if they make a good faith effort to comply with this act.